TRAVEL TO CAMPUS
THE OTHER WAY

Working from home - first results mobility pilot

46%
IS MORE POSITIVE ABOUT WORKING FROM HOME THAN EXPECTED

> 20%
WORKS FROM HOME ONE DAY A WEEK ACCORDING TO SURVEY SCP

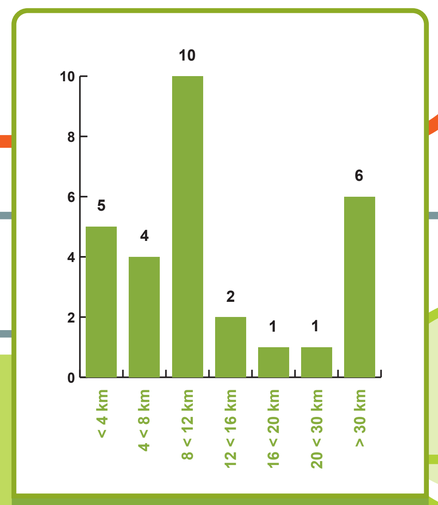
ADVANTAGES OF WORKING FROM HOME:
- CONCENTRATION
- MORE SATISFACTION
- RELAXATION

63%
WORKING FROM HOME MEETS EXPECTATIONS

30 - 40
LARGEST SHARE OF PARTICIPANTS WORKING AT HOME IS BETWEEN 30 AND 40 YEARS OLD.

20 KM
AVERAGE DISTANCE EMPLOYEES WORKING FROM HOME

30%
WORKED AT HOME MORE THAN FOUR TIMES



DISTANCE HOME - CAMPUS

52%
MENTIONED IT WAS EASY TO WORK AT HOME 4X IN EIGHT WEEKS

13%
STUDIES SHOW THAT EMPLOYEES WHO WORK FROM HOME ARE 13% MORE EFFECTIVE

TUDelft

WEATHER & TIMELINE 2019

SEPTEMBER
RAINFALL RATHER LOW

September started rather normal and rainfall was first a bit low.

The end of September was wet. There were only 10 warm days, there are normally 12. The number of fair weather days was only 3, whereas 8 is normal.

OCTOBER
19 DAYS OF RAIN

October was wet with frequently large amounts of rain. Not much sun and mild nights.

During the first 21 days of October, it rained on 19 days.

NOVEMBER / DECEMBER
77 HOURS OF SUNSHINE

November started wet and mild. At the end of November, it was wet again. In many locations, there was more than 15 mm of rain on November 27th and 28th.

Precipitation: in Delft 101 mm compared to the '2010 norm' of 80 mm. Nationwide, there was around 87 mm of rain (normally 82 mm). At the South and North Holland coast locally up to 140 mm!. Sunshine 77 hours compared to the '2010 norm' of 63 hours. December began with little wind and frost at night.

TUDelft